Hoofland's Column.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or any thing like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA, Nervous Debility, JAUNDICE, Diseases of the Kidneys, ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Conrt of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $5.

Price of the Tonic, $1 50 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $7 50.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. OUR CANDIDATES.

Hon. Horatio Seymour, the standard bearer of the Democracy in the coming Presidential election, is a native of New York State. He was born in Onondaga county, in the year 1811. His early advantages in schooling were superior to those of most Americans of the time, and his education from the beginning has been a most liberal one. Developing a preference for the law, he set to work at an early age to educate himself for the bar. His keen perception, quick intellect, not less than his constancy and perseverance, enabled him to acquire an enviable position as a lawyer, while still a young man. He commenced his practice in Utica, New York State; and his professional career, in relation to his clients, to his legal confreres, and to his general reputation, was eminently successful. It is scarcely to be wondered at that, with such prominent elements of success and popularity, he should at once have been called to the public service.

The first prominent office which Mr. Seymour accepted was in the year 1842, when he was a little more than 30 years of age. He was in that year elected to represent his district in the legislative assembly; and he continued to discharge his duties as a member of the State legislature until 1845. During this service, he showed such ability, firmness, and faithfulness to duty, that, skipping the usual intermediate steps of distinction, the Democratic party nominated him for the Governorship of the State of New York in the year 1850. His opponent was Mr. Washington Hunt, who, indeed, was elected; but Mr. Seymour ma'e, by his own personal efforts, the contest one of the sharpest that have ever been recorded in the political annals of the State.

At the very next election, in 1852, the New York Democracy confirmed their faith in Mr. Seymour, and, by nominating him again for the office of Governor, testified that they attributed their defeat in no wise to their candidate, to his want of ability, energy, or integrity. The result proved that they were right in their faith, for Mr. Seymour was elected to the chief office of the State of New York by an overwhelming majority. He took his seat as Governor, and his term of office was characterized by many measures of great benefit to the commonwealth. His native dignity, of which a good idea may be formed by those of Chicago's citizens who saw him preside at the Chicago Convention in 1864, is singularly adapted to any position that demands earnestness and decision. Even at this early day, he evinced a determination to counteract the growing tendency to fanaticism, centralization, and the undue assumption of power, inconsistent with the spirit of our government. One of the most noteworthy acts of his term was in his veto of the Maine-law liquor bill. His foresight was penetratiug enough to discern the evils that would follow a measure that had no basis of principle upon which to stand.

In 1856, Mr. Seymour's name was prominently mentioned in the Democratic National convention in connection with the Presidency, and he was already regarded as one of the ablest statesmen and truest Democrats in the land. In 1862, he received the nomination for the governorship of New York, in opposition to General Wadsworth. This contest is memorable in the history of the country. Governor Seymour met the issue, as he always does, openly and clearly. With a heart and a will for the preservation of the Union, which was afterwards practically and satisfactorily put to the test, he opposed the corruption of the party in power with all his strength.

In order to forestall any efforts which may be made to challenge his devotion to the Union, we give an extract from a speech which he delivered during his canvass in 1862. In his glowing, polished style, he said:

"Now, when the men of the South make the bayonet and the sword the arbiter (they elected, and not we;) when they determined to settle it by blood (and not we),—the sword, so far as the present is concerned, must be the arbiter; and in our strong arms it shall make vigorous and true blows for the life of our country, for its institutions, and for its flag. Now, let me say this to the higher law men of the North, and to the higher law men of the South, and to the whole world that looks on, witnesses to the mighty events transpiring in this country, that this Union shall never be severed,—no, never. Whatever other men may say, as for the conservative people of this country, and as for myself as an individual,—let other men say and think what they please,—as for the division of this Union, and the breaking up of that great natural alliance which is made by nature and by nature's God, I never will consent to it,—no, never, as long as I have a voice to raise or a hand to fight for this, our glorious land."

At his inauguration as Governor of New York, on January 1, 1863, Mr. Seymour at once sprang into national prominence. He announced himself, in his inaugural, as being prepared to support at once, the constitution of the United States, and that of the State of New York, which, he said, do not conflict. The line of separation between the responsibilities and obligations which each imposes is well defined."

In July, their culminsted, in an alarming riot in New York city, the difficulties which had been brewing during the year, with reference to the draft. It was justly believed, by the citizens of New York, that that city was being unjustly drawn upon for quotas of troops.

The outbreak was serions and menaced revolution. It was at this critical period that Gov. Seymour became the master spirit of the occasion and its occurrences. On the one hand, he exerted his personal influence to quiet the tremendous excitement that prevailed in the city; and, on the other, he applied himself to using such efforts at Washington as would secure a removal of the unjust inequality of the enrolment, and thereby remove the cause of the outbreak. He first addressed a letter asking that the quotas might be equalized, and that the draft be suspended until the result of the recruiting could be ascertained. On the refusal of Mr. Lincoln to suspend the draft as requested he then forwarded a statement showing a monstrous excess in the New York quotas over those of Massachusetts, Vermont, and New Hampshire. This time, he was partially successful; and the war department allowed the reduction of the excessive quotas of certain districts.

On July 30, General Dix notified Governor Seymour that the State troops would be called on to enforce, if necessary, the draft, which, for the times, had been suspended by the influence of Governor Seymour. Still believing the quota excessive, the Governor applied for a further suspension. Mr. Lincoln refused; the Secretary of War promised General Dix an adequate force of troops to enforce the draft; and there was imminent danger that a collision would occur between the Federal troops and the citizens of New York. It was at this critical juncture that Governor Seymour brought into play all his coolness and wisdom. He did not intermit, for a moment, his effort to secure such a reduction of the quotas as would remove the disturbing cause of excitement and incipient rebellion He steadily gave himself to this work; and so successful was he that he secured the desired reduction, and thereby saved New York from the horror of what would have been a bloody and wide spread insurrection. For this service, he won the thanks of the people of the whole State and country, as he did those of the legislature of New York. Any man with less coolness and judgment would have surrendered to the outrageous demands of the war department, and thereby have produced a revolution.

A revolution, in the summer of 1863, in New York, would have imperiled the cause for which the nation was fighting.

Lest the opposition may undertake to misrepresent the position of Governor Seymour, we reproduce the closing portion of his proclamation, issued upon the resumption of the draft:

"I again repeat the warning which I gave to you during the riotous proceedings of the past month, that 'The only opposition to the conscription which can be allowed is an appeal to the courts. The right of every citizen to make such an appeal will be maintained, and the decisions of the courts must be respected and obeyed by rulers and people alike. No other course is consistent with the maintenance of the laws, the peace and order of the city, and the safety of its inhabitants. Riotous proceedings must and shall be put down. The laws of the State of New York must be enforced, peace and order maintained, and the lives and property of all citizens protected, at any and every hazard. The rights of every citizen will be properly guarded and defended by the chief magistrate of the State.'"

"I hereby admonish all judicial and executive officers whose duty it is to enforce the law and preserve public order that they take vigorous and effective measures to put down any riotous or unlawful assemblages; and, if they find their power insufficient for that purpose, to call upon the military in the manner pointed out by the statutes of the State. If these measures should prove insufficient, I shall then exert the full power of the State, in order that the public order may be preserved, and the persons and property of the citizens be fully protected."

As an evidence of the interest which Governor Seymour took in the successful termination of the war for the Union, his action at the time of the invasion of the State of Pennsylvania is well worth recitation. It will be remembered that the governor of Pennsylvania called upon Governor Seymour for a certain number of troops. He promptly forwarded more than the quota of militia demanded.

In the following year, the most noticeable act of Governor Seymour's administration took place, with reference to the resolution of the legislature of the State to pay the foreign and domestic holders of the State debt the interest in the same funds. While making no objection to the principle involved in this determination, the governor, in a message to the legislature, took the ground that it would be a violation of faith, inasmuch as the same body had before resolved to pay foreign holders their interest in coin. He argued against the policy of violating the pledged faith of the State; and so cogent were his arguments that they achieved success.

The act of the legislature of New York to allow the soldiers absent to vote was signed by Governor Seymour, and, in a circular soon issued, he recommended an honorable carrying out of the legislative act.

In November of 1864, the Presidential election was approaching, and, as will be recollected, there existed a bitterness of partisanship such as was never before known. In view of this, Governor Seymour applied himself to the labor of pouring oil upon the troubled waters. In a proclamation which he then issued, there occurred the following passages:

"The existance of a terrible civil war, and the assertion of the right of military commanders in some sections to interfere with elections, have caused fearful and exciting doubts in the minds of many with regard to the free and untrammeled exercise of the elective franchise. I therefore appeal to all men of all political parties to unite with those holding official positions, in their efforts to allay undue excitement, soften the harshness of party prejudice, and to avoid all measures which tend to strife or disorder."

He concludes these temperate remarks by commanding sheriffs and all other peace officers to "see that no military or other organized forces shall be allowed to show themselves in the vicinity of the places were elections are held, with any view of intimidation or menacing citizens in attendance thereon."

These passages from the official career of Governor Seymour prove his temperate, logical, conservative character. Holding correct views of the obligations of one who is a citizen of a State and of the United States, he was ever prompt to protect the former against the aggressions of the federal power; and equally prominent in exacting full obedience on the part of the State when it owed duty to the general government.

In 1864, Mr. Seymour was renominated for Governor, but was defeated by a small majority. His retirement from the gubanatorial chair of New York was the close of his official career, Since that time, he has occupied himself with his private affairs, only occasionally appearing in public in order to give utterance to sentiments having bearing upon the politics or finances of the nation.

In the Democratic convention of 1864, Mr. Seymour was made permanent chairman of the convention. In his speech upon taking the chair, he arraigned the dominant party for its usurapations, gave utterance to sentiments whose beauty of diction, patriotism, and inspiration have rarely been equaled in modern oratory.

The nominee of the Democracy is eminently a scholar, a statesman, and a gentleman. To his guidance can safely be committed the task of regenerating the nation.

FRANK P. BLAIR, JR.,

The Democratic nominee for Vice-President, the son of Francis P. Blair, Sr., the veteran statesman and journalist, was born in Lexington, Kentucky, on the 16th of February, 1821. After completing his education at Princeton college, he applied himself to the study of law in his native town, and, after being admitted to the bar, removed to St. Louis, and commenced practice in 1843. During the war with Mexico, he served as Lieutenant of Volunteers. After the peace, he returned to St. Louis and resumed the practice of his profession. Entering into politics with the zeal characteristic of his nature and patriotic temperament he became identified with the so-calldd "free soil" party, by supporting Mr. Van Buren for the Presidency on the Buffalo platform. He was elected to the legislature of Missouri in 1852 as a delegate from St. Louis, and was re-elected in 1854. Upon the expiration of his second term, in 1856, he was chosen to represent the St. Louis district in Congress, and was successively re-elected in the years 1858, 1860 and 1862. From the spring of 1861 until he left his seat in Congress, he was chairman of the committee on military affairs in the House.

Upon the breaking out of the rebellion, Mr. Blair raised the 1st regiment of Missouri volunteers; and, on the 7th of August, having, in the meantime, attended the special session of Congress, he was appointed a Brigadier General of Volunteers. The brigade of which he first assumed command was raised by his own efforts among the citizens of Missouri. He was promoted to the rank of a Major-General in November of the following year.

General Blair's military record—while in command of a brigade at Chickasaw bayou and Arkansas Post; of Sherman's old division of the 15th army corps in the siege of Vicksburg and the capture of Jackson, Mississippi; of the 15th corps in its marches from Inka to Chattanooga, and thence to Knoxville, including the battle of Mission Ridge; and of the 17th army corps in the ever memorable Atlanta campaign—is familiar to all who followed the events, or have made themselves acquainted with the history, of the great rebellion.

When the army of the Tennssee went into winter quarters at Huntsville, in 1863, General Blair, at the personal request of President Lincoln, returned to Washington and resumed his place in Congress. At the opening of active operations, he hastened back to the army, and was assigned to the command of the 17th army corps, in place of General McPherson, who had succeeded General Sherman at the head of the army of the Tennessee.

General Blair, as will be seen, is a representative of the citizen-soldiery of the nation. He is one of the very few volunteer officers, uneducated in the "regular" school, who has risen by his merits from the rank of a Lieutenant of Infantry to that of a Major-General, and whose performances as a soldier fully justified in the wisdom of his promotion. In war or in politics, in the field or in the forum, Frank P. Blair has ever proved, by the test of the most thorough practice, a success. His nomination to the second place on the Democratic ticket is a worthily-bestowed honor to the statesmanly abilities as well as to the soldierly merits of the man.

LETTER FROM MR. DOOLITTLE.

The Duty of Conservative Republicans---Why all Patriotic Men Without Distinction of Party, Should Support Seymour and Blair.

WASHINGTON, July 13, 1868.

O. H. Ostrander, Esq., Danville, Pa:

DEAR SIR: I am in receipt of your letter of the 10th inst., in which, speaking for yourself and a number of other Conservative Republicans of your town you express a "sense of disappointment and regret that no better names had been offered by the Democratic party to lead the conservative and patriotic masses of the people to victory, and the Radical Republican party to deserving and merited defeat. As a gentleman and a statesman Mr. Seymour holds our respect, but as a Peace Democrat we are indisposed to vote for him;" and you are pleased to say, that, if my name, among others, had been placed at the head of the ticket, "all would have gone well and victory would have been certain." You desire my opinion upon the situation and "the prospects of a third party."

I thank you for the confidence thus reposed in me, and shall not shrink from the responsibility of stating frankly my opinion.

I do not think the organization of any third party is wise, or can work any practical good to the great cause in which we are engaged. In the very nature of things, when great priciples are at stake, there are, and there can be, but two effective political parties.—"He that is not for me, is against me," in politics as well as in religion, is a truth upon which every wise man is compelled to act.

What, then, is the great and paramount issue? What is that great and unpardonable wrong for which the Radical party is now arraigned and should be overthrown?

It is substantially this:

In violation of the Constitution—in violation of pledges made and often repeated, from the first battle of Bull Run to the end of the war; pledges to the North to get men and money; pledges especially made to the Democracy to get their support in the field and in the elections; pledges made to the South to induce them to lay down their allegiance, and pledges to foreign powers to prevent intervention—in violation of all these solemn pledges, upon which we invoked the blessing of Almighty God upon our cause, and by which alone we gained strength to master the rebellion—in violation of the civilized men of every State to govern themselves, and in violation of the clear provisions of the Constitution which leaves to each State for itself the right to regulate suffrage, this party has, without trial by ex post facto laws, disfranchised hundreds or thousands of the most intelligent of their citizens, and has forced upon ten States and six millions of our own Anglo-Saxon race the universal and unqualified suffrage of seven hundred thousand ignorant and in the main, half-civilized negroes.

This is the great wrong for which that party is arraigned at the bar of public judgment, and for which it should be overthrown.

To consummate that great wrong, they have abolished all civil government and civil liberty, even in these ten States;

They have established five absolute military despotisms, wherein all rights to life, liberty, and property, are subject to the will of one man;

They have kept the Union divided;

They have prevented the restoration of industry;

They have kept down the credit of the Government, during three years of peace, to a point so low that, to the shame of every American, the six per cent. bonds of the United States sell for only 73 in gold, while the bonds of Brazil, bearing only four per cent. interest, bring over 90 in gold.

They have encroached upon the just rights of the Executive;

They have threatened the independence of the Supreme Court;

They have unjustly, and without cause, impeached and put upon trial the President himself, and, by every species of denunciation, and even by threats of assassination, have endeavored to force the Senate to convict him, in order to place in the executive chair one who will use all its power to consummate that gigantic wrong against the Constitution, against our plighted faith, against civilization, and against our own race and kindred.

The Convention in New York met for the purpose of organizing to overthrow the party in power for this great wrong, and to restore to the Union and the Constitution, and the rights of the States and of all the States under it. Now, I do not say the nominations made at New York are the very best that could have been made for that purpose.

The elements to be organized into a victorious army were four-fold. To use a military figure, there were four army corps to be organized into one grand army:

First. The great Democratic Corps:
Second. The War Democratic Corps:
Third. The Conservative Republican Corps:
Forth. The Civilized Southern Corps.

The first, or Democratic Corps, was fully organized, with ranks well filled, but not in sufficient numbers to secure the victory.

There was the War Democratic Corps, which supported Lincoln in 1864; but which in consequence of the great wrong above mentioned, was ready to sever itself from the Radical Army under General Grant; and there was the Conservative Republican Corps, of which you are pleased to speak of me as leader, who for the same reasons, were ready to join the Grand Army, and do all in their power to bring success to our cause.

The two last are the recruiting corps. They hold the balance of power. As a matter of policy, had the first office been given to a cheif of the one or of the other, it would have made our victory more easy, if not certain.

Everybody knows that the result of this contest is to depend upon the important question, whether we shall be able to recruit those two corps in sufficient numbers, and carry them to the hearty support of Mr. Seymour. If we can, victory is with us: if we cannot, victory is against us.

In my judgment, it is our duty to do so. The very life of the Constitution is involved and, with it the rights of the States and liberties of the people.

I cannot hesitate one moment; my judgment is for it; my whole heart is in it. So far from relaxing, we should redouble our efforts. Bear in mind that the war was ended three years ago, when a new era was opened in political affairs; that Mr. Seymour is a man of high character, of unquestioned patriotism, of great ability and experience, wholly with us upon the living and paramount issue; and that, if elected, he will make a most able and dignified President; and certainly no Pennsylvanian will forget that, but for his promptness and energy in forwarding the forces of New York to Gettysburg, that great battle might have been lost and Pennsylvania overrun. While in General Blair we have a civilian and a soldier, whose promptness and indomitable resolution seized Camp Jackson and saved Missouri from secession; who always stood among the foremost of the war Republicans, in council and in the field, while the war lasted; and, when it was over, was among the first to demand that for which the war was prosecuted—the Union of the States under the Constitution, with their rights, equality, and dignity unimpaired.

Let us unite for a victory! Let us have peace—a peace which comes not from a violated Constitution, and the despotism of the sword, but a peace which comes from a resorted Union and the supremacy of constitutional law, by which alone liberty is secured.

Respectfully, yours, J. R. DOOLITTLE.

A Young man sent his father in the country his photogarph, stating that he was poor and required money. The father refused, stating that he could not be very poor to be living surrounded by marble vases, rose wood furniture and choice flowers, as his photograph represented him.

To shake off trou ble, you must set about doing good to somebody. Put on your hat, and go visit the poor; inquire into their wants and admininister unto them; seek out the disconsolate and console them; bind up the wounds of the afflicted, and in so doing you yourself shall be filled with the oil of joy.

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS,
CLEARFIELD, Pa., July 21, 1868.

Democrats of Pennsylvania:

THE HOUR FOR WORK HAS COME!

We earnestly invite you to organize for victory.

Attention to details, persevering energy, organization and discipline will bring triumph to your principles.

Zeal and perseverance in every Democrat, and thorough organization in every locality, are the true roads to success.

Superficial effort, noise and parade are valueless. The stake is a mighty one, and must be won by systematic work and business-like energy.

Pennsylvania is the battle-ground. At the October election the enemy will make their most determined contest.

You occupy the post of honor—the vanguard of the Democratic army.—You have proven your ability to carry the State; and individual effort, faith in your principles and courage in their maintenance now, will enable you to count your majority by tens of thousands.

The drift of the tide is toward you; changes are abundant; and it is apparent that the political revulsion now in progress will end in the utter overthrow of Radicalism.

Let us labor to deserve so propitious a result.

We invoke you, then, to energetic action, to close attention to the details of your organization, to the formation of clubs, to the conversion of voters, to the enthusiastic support of your candidates—SEYMOUR, the statesman, and BLAIR, the gallant soldier.

Let us recognize in their names the symbols of change, the representatives of hatred to Radicalism, and extending the hand of fellowship to all who will aid us in saving the Republic, Conservatives and Democrats will move forward under their banner, as a mighty phalanx, united, determined and irresistible.

Let your warfare be aggressive. Defend nothing. The Radicals in power are responsible for the unhappy condition of our country Charge upon them their extravagances and their crimes. Demand of them an account for your treasure wasted, your Union not restored, your race degraded, your business destroyed and your Government prostituted.

Let your rallying cries be, A GOVERNMENT OF WHITE MEN; EQUAL TAXATION; ONE CURRENCY FOR ALL.

Organize! Organize! Organize!

To work! To work! To work!

By order of the Democratic State Committee.

WILLIAM A. WALLACE,
Chairman.

THADDEUS STEVENS.

Old Thad. endorses the Democratic platform on the financial question, the taxation of bonds and every thing else except "the Negro" Thad. says that the Chicago Grant Platform, if it means the payment of the bonds in gold, as it is construed to mean by the N. Y Tribune, Forney's Press and nearly every Radical leader in the country, is a "swindle" and an "outrage," and he will vote for Seymour and Blair, if that construction is to be put upon it. Republicans, pause and ponder! When the "Great Commoner," as you delight to call him, thus exposes the hypocrisy of your platform, is it not time to stop and think?

THE DUTY OF THE HOUR.

Can any one hesitate? Democrat, Republican, look at the fearful work that has been and is being done by the Radical party, through its Representatives in Congress. See the disfranchisement of a quarter of a million of white Americans! See the elevation of 600,000 Negroes to political supremacy in ten States of the Union! See the establishment of a military despotism over eight millions of Americans! See the fifty thousand bayonets of a standing army, kept bright by appropriations of hundreds of millions of the people's taxes! See four millions of Negroes maintained out of the hard earnings of the people of the North, in order that they may be supported in idleness as voters of the Radical ticket! See the enormous increase of the public debt, and the failure of Congress to do anything to relieve the people of their burdens! See the Bond-holder, the wealthy aristocrat, rolling in opulence, exempt from taxation, whilst the mechanic, the merchant, the laborer and farmer, are made to groan under the load of taxes! See the horrible conspiracy to impeach and depose the President, and the outrageous legislation of Congress to throttle the Supreme Court! And now, last and most dangerous and most infamous of all the diabolism of the Radical conspirators, behold the arming of the Negroes of the South with 2,000 muskets and a battery of cannon for each Congressional district!

Who can hesitate? Great God! what are party ties, what are personal preferences, what are the disappointments of individuals, when thrown into the scale against these unutterable enormities and crimes? Shame and confusion to the man who hesitates now! The frown of outraged Heaven will forever cloud the life of him who knows his duty in this crisis and fails to perform it. How contemptible beyond all parallel is the man who knows and feels and inwardly revolts at the misrule of the Radicals, and yet sits supinely down, or for party's sake, goes to the election and votes for the very men who have brought the country to ruin and shame! Let it not be said of any man in Bedford county, be he Republican, or Democrat, "You knew your duty, but you did it not! Is there any conscience left among men? Is there a single spark of patriotism to animate the breasts of this devoted people? Is there reverence for the examples of our fore-fathers, love for our free institutions, hatred of tyranny and wrong, pride of lineage and the American name? If so, let us see the proof in the hearty, united, unselfish, but irresistible determination to put down the monster Radicalism, to wipe from the face of the earth, the curse of Sectional Hate which has blighted and blasted the best hopes of the American people.

The duty of the hour demands the consecration of every man who loves his country, to the great cause of Democracy against Radical Tyranny.—Who can afford to be a laggard or a coward?

ORGANIZE!

Now that harvest is over, and the weather is becoming cooler, we advise our friends throughout the county, to take steps to organize the party. The full Democratic vote of this county has not been polled for years, for the simple reason that our organization has always been imperfect. This year it must be otherwise. The interests at stake in this canvass are too important to let things take their own course. Every Township and Borough should have its local organization. Seymour and Blair clubs should be formed in every election district. It is not necessary that much noise should be made in getting up these organizations. Quiet work is more effective than the braying of horns and the flaunting of banners.—These are well enough in their place, but thorough drill, perfect discipline, complete method, are of incalculable value. It may be said that in some places it is impossible to organize a club. Nonsense! Where two or three meet together in a good cause, the angel of success will be in the midst of them. Let there be regular meetings and frequent consultations. Even if but two persons meet together and take counsel for the welfare of the country, good results will follow.

Now, shall this suggestion be acted upon? Men may boast of their Democracy, they may talk of their fidelity to their party and the labor they have performed for its success in the past, but the coming election will prove their devotion to their professed principles.—The country must be rescued now, in this awful crisis of its fate, from the grasp of the demons that are dragging it down to perdition. Can you sit quietly at your fire-side, can you pursue the even tenor of your way, and permit this great crime to be accomplished? It cannot be. To work, then, and do not wait for others to take the initiative. Begin, of your own accord, and let nothing deter you from pushing forward the accomplishment of your purpose. Meet with your neighbors and consult with them. Let each one assign himself a particular duty and resolve to perform it. And above all things, let there be no delay in beginning the work.

JOHN CESSNA vs. "COPPERHEADS."

At a Radical meeting held in front of the Washington Hotel, a short time since, the Hon. John Cessna made one of his usual screeching speeches in which he belabored, with his wonted vindictiveness, his old friends, the "Copperheads." John, in order, we presume, to show in what familiar terms he and "the Devil" intercommunicate each other's secrets, related the following:

"The Devil asked a Yankee to become one of his followers. The Yankee said he would, if the Devil could do certain things. The Devil replied he could do anything. The Yankee asked him to pluck up a large tree that stood near them. The Devil pulled it up by the roots and flung it away from him. The Yankee asked him to remove a hill close by. The Devil kicked it down with his foot. The Yankee then asked him to tell him what was meaner than a 'copperhead.' This the Devil could not answer, but burst into tears with grief at not being able to count the Yankee among his followers. 'No,' said the Devil, there is nothing so mean in Hell as a copperhead."

Cessna, of course, adopted the statement of the Devil as truth, and is convinced and now tries to convince others, that "there is nothing in Hell so mean as a "copperhead."

Shame on this ungrateful dog! Who gave him all the position he ever held? Who sent him to the Legislature?—Who made him Speaker of the House of Representatives? Who worked and fought and spent their time and money to make him the John Cessna of 1863? The very men whom he now denounces as "copperheads" and beslimes with his malignity. Why, that title of "Hon.," which he wears so meekly, would not be before his name to-day, if it had not been placed there by those whom he styles "copperheads." He was a "copperhead" himself. He opposed the "Republican" party until the very last year of the war and declared on the stump that the Union could not be restored if Lincoln did not withdraw his Emancipation Proclamation. Now, "like the dog that returns to his vomit," he has gone to the ranks of his former enemies, to eat all the dirt he threw at them for twenty years. And this renegade "copperhead" has near friends whom he places in this category of "copperheads" who are "meaner than anything in Hell," men who are respected and beloved wherever they are known, but whom he dislikes because they would not follow him in his treachery to the party that made him. Such a man is not merely guilty of treachery to his party, he is false to friends and kindred, and a traitor to the best and noblest instincts of humanity.

AN INFERNAL MEASURE.

Congress, on Friday last, passed a bill to take the control of the military in the first and fifth districts, from Gens. Stoneman and Buchanan and place it in the hands of the Carpetbag Presidents of the Reconstruction conventions of those districts. Thus Virginia, Mississippi and Texas are refused even the few rights left them under the Reconstruction acts, and their people are to be bayonetted into the embrace of Radicalism, by such fiends in human shape as Hunnicutt, Eggleston and Hamilton. But worse than this, the people of those States are to be prevented under the severest penalties, from voting at the Presidential election. We quote the following from this bill:

"That if in any one of the said States any person shall, during the year 1868, vote for any candidate for election for President or Vice-president of the United States, or shall act as an officer at any election for such candidate, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be liable to indictment and conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall, on conviction be fined not more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than one month nor more than one year. That it shall be the duty of the President of the United States to prohibit any person from voting or acting as an officer of and election contrary to the provisions of this act, and for that purpose he shall employ the power of the army and navy of the United States so far as may be necessary,"

There was but one "Republican" in the whole House, who had the honesty to vote against this tyrannical and shameful outrage, Mr. Baker of Illinois. God of justice, cannot be that such crimes as these shall go unrebuked!

BETTING ON THE ELECTION.

One of the most dastard tricks of the opposition, is getting strangers to bet with our citizens on the result of the election. When this is done some individuals present will take a note of it and prevent the democrat from voting, on the day of the election. Look out for all such offers to bet and avoid the trick.

PENNSYLVANIA'S SHARE OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Each County's Share and the Yearly Interest Thereon.

An Interesting Table for Tax-payers.

We have prepared with much care, a table which we append, setting forth the pro rata share of the public debt, and of the yearly interest thereon, to be paid by each county in this State. It is admitted by statisticians of all parties, that the debt of the United States is, at present, at least $3,000,000,000. Some persons, Thaddeus Stevens among the number, put it above these figures. Pennsylvania's share of the $3,000,000,00), is estimated at one-sixth of the whole, or $500,000,000. Upon this basis, the fairness of which will not be disputed, the following table has been calculated:

It should be remembered that this does not include pensions, bounties, and debts of a similar description. Is it not amazing to contemplate the sums which are gathered from the people, year after year, simply to pay the interest on this debt? People often complain of their county and State taxes, but in hardly any county in the Commonwealth do these amount to one-tenth of the interest actually paid on the public debt each year by the people of such county. It is true this interest is not all collected from the people by a direct tax; that part of it which is not so collected is raised by duties on articles of meat, drink and apparel, which are invariably paid by the consumer. Hence the high prices of the necessaries of life, and "the grinding of the faces of the poor." And this interest, mark you, must be paid in gold, which adds 40 cents to every dollar of it. This is a subject worthy the attention of every man; for if this land of ours is ever again to be one of prosperity, this load must be lifted from the shoulders of the people.

WHO SUPPORT THEM.

Among the supporters of Seymour and Blair, are Chief Justice Chase, Judge Field and Judge Davis, of the U. S. Supreme Court, Maj. Gen. Ewing, Gen. L. D. Campbell, Hon. J. R. Doolittle, Senator Dixon, Ex-Senator Cowan, Senator D. S. Norton, Secretaries Welles and Browning and other members of the cabinet. These have all hitherto been "Republicans." Maj. Gen. Hancock, Maj. Gen. W. B. Franklin, Maj. Gen. D. N. Conch, Maj. Gen. H. W. Slocum, Maj. Gen. W. F. (Baldy) Smith, Maj. Gen. J. A. McClernand, Maj. Gen. Duryea (of the famous Zouaves) and a host of the ablest and best officers of the Union army, are warm supporters of Seymour and Blair. It is said that Maj. Gen. Geo. B. McClellan will soon return to this country and take the stump for the Democratic candidates.

ANOTHER REBELLION.

Congress has voted two thousand rifles and a battery of cannon for each congressional district. These arms are to be placed in the hands of the blacks in the South, to raise another rebellion. Let the alarm be sounded from one end of the county to the other.

DEMOCRATIC REPUDIATION.

While the Radicals are clamoring against what they term the "Repudiation plank" of the Democratic platform, which embodies the views of Mr. Pendleton, the following extract from the great speech of that gentleman, delivered to the Democracy of West Virginia last week, will enable those who do not fully understand the matter to comprehend it in all its parts:

"I am," said the distinguished orator, "hostile to no class or interest in this country. I simply desire to be just—just to the bondholder, just to the people. I would live up with scrupulous fidelity to the terms of our contracts. I would pay the interest of the five twenties in gold, because the Government promised to do so; I would pay the principal and interest of the ten-forties in gold, because the Government promised to do so; I would pay the principle of the five twenties in legal tender notes, because the bondholders agreed to receive them in payment; and as I would not repudiate an honest bargain to make money for the people, so I would not repudiate an honest bargain to make money for the public creditors." Again: "These bonds operate as a mortgage upon the property and labor of the country. There are two thousand millions of them. Pay off those two thousand millions, and will not these legal tenders be just in that proportion more valuable? Since the debt was contracted in legal tenders, I am in favor of continuing it until we can secure the people, who have already suffered all the evils, whatever good may be expected from the system.

These are the views of Mr. Pendleton, and these are the views embodied in the Democratic platform. Will the Radical journals, which cry "repudiation," be kind enough to point out to their readers wherein Mr. Pendleton or the Democratic platform advocates any such wrong? The howl of "repudiation," like that of Copperhead, is simply "played out."

THE TIME TO STRIKE.

The Radicals are disorganized and discouraged. Their best men, their leaders, in fact, such men as Chase, Doolittle, Dixon, Cowan, Welles, Gen. Ewing and many others, have repudiated them and joined hands with the Democracy. Thaddeus Stevens, too, the "great commoner," as they delight to call him, has denounced the "letter and spirit" plank of the Chicago Platform, and declares in favor of the Democratic financial policy. Thus divided and distracted, the Radical party will be easily beaten, if the Democrats make a determined, well-organized effort. Now is the time to strike. The man who will not "strip to the buff" to win this battle, is either a coward, or has no faith in his principles. The man who works for the party now, is the man who will be hailed, in all the future, as a true and trustworthy patriot. Strike, whilst we have the enemy at a disadvantage!

UNANIMOUS.

Seymour and Blair received the unanimous nomination of the National Democratic Convention, and the unanimous endorsement of the National Committee of the Soldiers' Convention. They are the candidates of The People.

"Put Up Or Shut Up."

A blatant Radical, a few days since, happening in company with some gentlemen in this city, offered to bet $100 that Governor Seymour would not carry his own State, (New York.) One of the company, a responsible and well-known citizen, agreed to take it, and offered the following, open to all Radicals: He will name twelve States, and will bet $10,000 on each State, that Seymour will carry them: $20,000 that Seymour, if he lives, will be the next President; and $5,000 that no Radical will dare accept the proposition, and put up the money. This is a fine chance for Wilkes, of New York, or any of the worshippers of segar smoke, horse talk, and whisky straight.—Philadelphia Mercury.

THE OLD GUARD FOR AUGUST.—This sterling old Democratic visitor comes out in the most inviting make up for the coming month. It is particularly rich in variety of very interesting and original character. Among its contents will be found the following: Modern and Ancient Ideas of Liberty Contrasted, by the Editor.—Chapter III—Ideas of Government and Liberty in Europe during the Eighteenth Century; Origin of the Swiss Republican; Under the Roses. A Novel, By Miss Marshall. U. S. Grant; by a General in the United States Army; Voltaire's Theory upon the Peopling of America, the Democratic Nominees and platform; Financial and Commercial; The Book Table, which is very replete and inviting; The Editor's Table, of which it may be said that it presents, like the Book Table, a very interesting melange; An excellent life-like steel plate portrait of Horatio Seymour, the Democratic nominee for President, is presented in this number. It is the only steel plate copy extant, and is pronounced by Mr. Seymour and his friends the very best ever issued. Single copies, 25 cents; $3 per year. Address Van Evrie, Horton & Co., Publishers, No. 162 Nassau street, New York.

POISONING THE BLESSED AIR.—This is what the rivals of PHALON'S new perfume, "FLOR DE MAYO," are doing with their atrocious compounds. The Health Commissioners should look to it. It is their duty to abate the ill-smelling nuisances. Sold by all druggists.

FROM BALTIMORE.

Terrific Rain Storm and Tremendous Flood.

BALTIMORE, July 24.—A very tremendous thunder storm passed over this city to-day. The rain fell in torrents for some hours, flooding the streets in every direction, and interrupting telegraphic and railway communication with the South. The rain continued until four o'clock this afternoon. Jones' falls were overflowed and the city in that region inundated. Baltimore, Gay and Holliday streets were flooded, the water rising at the rate of two feet per minute. The Holliday street theatre and old City Hall are filled with water nearly up to the second story, and Mr. Ward, the janitor, was drowned. Many others are believed to have lost their lives, and the destruction of property is immense. All of the canal bridges in the city have been swept away. I have just learned that Swann lake, seven miles out, on the Northern Central railroad, from which the city is supplied with water, has given way and the whole of the immense flood has swept down the valley, carrying away bridges, houses, factories and other property. The cars at the Northern Central railroad depot are now swimming in water, and some persons are in them. Persons who have just arrived from the country report terrible destruction. Drowned bodies of men, women and children are frequently being picked up. The flood also has been very severe on the Washington railroad, and did much damage. Boats are now seen in all directions in the lower streets, in what used to be called the meadows. The dam at Swann lake cost nearly a quarter of a million of dollars. It makes one shudder to contemplate the fearful consequences of this awful flood, which are not yet half known. The central police station is twenty feet in water. This flood far exceeds that of 1835. The water is passing off to-night rapidly, but is still about ten feet deep, and a raging flood on Pratt and other streets in the lower part of the city. The damage done is roughly estimated at $3,000,000, but may greatly exceed that sum. A lady and four children were drowned, about dusk, in trying to get out of a frame dwelling down town. Probably thirty persons have lost their lives by this disaster. Policemen are rowing all about the city in boats making rescues of persons and property wherever practicable. The rain has ceased and the crisis has passed as I dispatch this to you.

—On the 15th instant a riot took place in Milican, Texas. A mob of about twenty-five negroes, led by a white school teacher and a negro preacher, attempted to hang a man named Wm. Holiday. The white citizens, headed by the sheriff, prevented the execution, and attempted to suppress the mob, killing some ten or twelve negroes. The fighting continued on the following day, and the negroes who had increased their force to some three or four hundred, were only put down by the arrival of the United States troops. Some fifty or sixty negroes were killed altogether. The difficulty is said to have arisen from supicion that a negro member of the Loyal League had been hung, but who has since been found.

PITTSBURGH FEMALE COLLEGE.—We call the attention of our readers to the claims of this really sterling institution. Its recent catalogue shows an attendance during the past year of three hundred and forty-seven young ladies, gathered from twelve States. Its admirable location, on one of the most beautiful and quiet streets of Pittsburgh and yet within ten minutes walk of nearly every important point, its wholesome discipline, and withal, moderate prices, commend it to all who have daughters to educate. This latter item is worthy of special notice. The charges are scarcely one-half those of many schools having fewer teachers and less facilities. It is not an institution established for private gain, but to meet a public want, and the single aim of all concerned has been to put a finished education, of the highest grade, within the reach of all worthy young ladies. The Fall term commences September 2. Send to Rev. I. C. Pershing, for a catalogue. Let its halls be crowded.

It is worthy of notice that Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith, of Boston, manufacturers of the AMERICAN ORGANS, have been most successful in the sale of their instruments in those localities where special exertions have been made by certain manufacturers who have had the arrogance and deception to claim every improvement in reed instruments as their own, which were in operation ever before they existed in the business. Never have the AMERICAN ORGANS been so popular, and the sales so large as at the present time. We have tested these instruments for a long time, and find them in every respect the most satisfactory and perfect which we have ever used, and we have had practical experience in the use of those organs which in the public prints claim the greatest celebrity.—Vt. Musical Journal.

MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING, (in one bottle.)—Two weeks' trial, and you have the guarantee that you will not have a gray hair in your head.—The natural color and beauty are restored, and a new and luxuriant growth is the result. We have this spoken by those who have used it, and we predict hosts of friends for the inproved preparation, and we are happy to state the price is only One Dollar per bottle. Every Druggist sells it. jul31w4

A celebrated chemist says: "I consider, after a careful comparison and analysis, 'Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative' by far the best hair preparation in the market. It is the only one I can fully indorse."—Boston Journal.

Campaign Gazette!

REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, Civil Liberty and Constitutional Rights!

NO STANDING ARMY!

NO FREEDMEN'S BUREAU!

NO NEGRO STATES!

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. It will be published from the first day of June until the seventh of November, next, at the following low terms, cash in advance:

One copy,	$ .75
Ten copies,	6.00
Twenty copies,	11.00
Fifty copies,	25.00

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. TOBIAS' Celebrated Venetian Liniment whose wonderful cures, sure and instantaneous action in cases of Chronic Rheumatism, Headache, Toothache, Cuts, Burns, Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, etc., have astonished the civilized world. It is no new catch-penny, but an article that has stood the test of twenty years. The enormous sale and rapidly increasing demand is at once the surest evidence of its usefulness and popularity. Try it and be convinced. No family should be without a bottle in the house—hnndreds of dollars, and many hours of suffering may be saved by its timely use. Colic, Cramp, and Dysentery yield at once to its pain-curative properties. It is perfectly innocent, and can be given to the oldest person or youngest child. No matter, if you have no confidence in Patent Medicines—try this, and you will be sure to buy again and recommend to your friends. Hundreds of Physicians recommend it in their practice. None genuine unless signed. "S. I. Tobias." Price 50 cents ber bottle. Sold by all the Druggists. Depot, 56 Cortlandt Street, New York. jul24w1

A NEW REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION.—A Physician who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleedings of the lungs, cured himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless. He is the only physician who has used it in his own person, or who has any knowledge of its virtues; and he can ascribe the degree of health he now enjoys to nothing but the use of his medicine; and nothing but utter despair and entire extinction of all hope of recovery, together with a want of confidence in all others induced him to hazard the experiment. To those suffering with any disease of the Lungs he proffers a treatment he confidently believes will eradicate the disease. Medicine sent by express. Send for a circular or call on Seymour, Blair and Liberty!

No Enforced Negro Suffrage, No Arming of Negroes, No Exemption of Bondocrats from Taxation, No Standing Army, No Military Despotism, but the people of each State to regulate Suffrage, Equal Taxation, Civil Liberty, Peace, Union, Harmony and Prosperity, under the Statesman, Seymour, as President!

A meeting of the friends of Seymour and Blair, will be held in the Court House, on SATURDAY EVENING NEXT, AUG. 1, under the auspices of the Seymour and Blair Campaign Club, of Bedford borough.

GEN. W. H. MILLER, of Harrisburg, and others will address the meeting. Come, thinking men of Bedford county, and hear the issues of the campaign fairly, fully and intelligently discussed.

GRUNT AND POLLTAX! GRAND RADICAL FIZZLE!—On Saturday last, at 4 o'clock, p. m. the scattered remnants the Radical faction in this County, assembled in this place, for the purpose of holding a grand mass meeting in behalf of Grant and Colfax, or, as the disgusted tax-payers called it, "Grunt and Poll-tax." Although hand-bills announcing that Gov.-A. G. Curtin, Col. McClure and the noted clown, Tom. Marshall, would address the meeting, had been freely distributed throughout the county; although word had been sent to the faithful in all parts of the county, beseeching them to attend; although every possible appliance was made use of to get up a crowd; it turned out the slimmest, sickliest, slowest and saddest-looking, political gathering we ever saw in Bedford. It was intended, originally, by the managers, to hold the meeting outside of the court house, but paucity of numbers compelled them to "hide their diminished heads" within the court room, which contained quite a number of empty benches during the entire proceedings.

There was much straining of necks and eyes to see Gov. Curtin, but the sharpest optics were insufficient to detect his presence. The Governor, although at the Springs, had refused to speak. When this fact was discovered, a number of the disappointed and disgusted, made for the door, and notwithstanding the beseeching looks of one of the managers, they incontinently left the meeting.

A clown by the name of Marshall and A. K. McClure, formerly of "Rutherford's Lane," now of Philadelphia, made the "speeches." And such "speeches!" We will put up any Democratic school-boy, fifteen years old, to speak against such stuff as composed the talk of these two eminent Radicals. Marshall told a few old anecdotes and declaimed about "rebels," "lost legs" and "lost arms," and comparing the returning Southerners to the Prodigal Son, said they did not wait for the fatted calf to be slain, but demanded of us at once "to bring on the veal." Some of his hearers were annoyed at this, as they imagined that he was driving at ex-rebel Joe Brown, the founder of Andersonville Prison, who was a member of the Grant Convention, or at Sawyer, the South Carolina Blockade-runner, who is now a Radical member of the U. S. Senate, or at a certain rebel Captain, who is now a Radical member of Congress from South Carolina, and who was denounced on the floor of Congress, the other day, by Mullins, of Tennessee, (another Radical) as not only "disloyal," but a murderer! or at that loyal Radical, Gen. Longstreet, or at all the "rebel" scalawags in the South who have been forgiven by the Radicals because they are willing to vote their ticket and sleep with "niggers." These ex-rebels are now fattening upon Uncle Sam's veal, dished out to them liberally by their Radical brethren in Congress. Marshall ought not to be so hard on his own friends.

McClure, in his usual sanctimonious, clerical, oily-tongued style, attempted to prove that black was white and white was black. He said that the Supreme Court had decided in the Dorr case that Congress had the right to determine whether the government of a state is Republican in form or not. This was news to his Radical hearers, as they hadn't heard a speaker of their party quote a decision of the Supreme Court, since the foundation of their organization. But the deft and learned McClure failed to tell his audience, that the Supreme Court did not decide, in the Dorr or any other case, that Congress has the right to force Negro Suffrage upon the people of a state, at the point of the bayonet, and he also conveniently forgot to state that his party in Congress gagged the Supreme Court so that they could not render a decision in the McArdle case, which involves the question of the constitutionality of the Reconstruction acts. McClure, furthermore, was severe upon his former favorite, Chief Justice Chase. In order to illustrate his opinion of this eminent man, he had to resort to anecdote, but to preserve the sanctimoniousness of his address, he concluded to select his anecdote from an old number of that excellent religious journal, the Presbyterian. So, the 'rolling-in-the-dirt-all-for-nothing' story was duly appropriated by the pious McClure and related to his audience.

The only point in either speech which assembled Radicalism seemed to relish, was that excellent hit made by Marshall, when he said, he could "run the blackest negro in the Union against Horatio Seymour and beat him in Allegheny county?" This was so good that many of Mr. Marshall's hearers could bear no more, and for fear of a surfeit of such good things, withdrew from the meeting.

Taking this Radical demonstration all in all, and considering the tremendous efforts to make it a success, it must be acknowledged, by every candid man present at the meeting, that it was a complete failure. Another such a meeting will be the end of Grunt and Polltax in this region.

CLOSE OF THE VOLUME.—With this issue closes the sixty third volume and year of the BEDFORD GAZETTE, and the eleventh year of the connection of the senior editor with its publication. The circulation of the paper is now much larger than at any former period and is steadily increasing. Next week we shall present our readers an enlarged and otherwise improved sheet, and as this improvement costs money, we hope our friends in arrears, will at once pay up, and that a little extra exertion will be made by the active Democrats of the county to increase our list of subscribers. Come, friends, what can you do for the 'old GAZETTE?"

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR CAMPAIGN CLUB.—The Democrats of Bedford and vicinity, met at the Court House, on Saturday evening last, and formed a Seymour and Blair Campaign club. The best of feeling prevailed and a large number of persons subscribed their names to the roll of members. The meeting was presided over by Hon. W. P. Schell, and W. A. Edwards, Esq., acted as Secretary. A short address was delivered by B. F. Meyers. The club will meet regularly every Saturday evening.

AT THE SPRINGS.—Visitors are still arriving at the Springs. Among the distinguished personages now sojourning here, are Rev. John Chambers, Chief Justice Thompson, Gen. W. H. Miller, of Harrisburg, Col. W. C. Patterson, of Philadelphia, and Col. J. W. Duncan, of Pittsburg.

SOLD OUT.—J. R. Durborrow, Esq., has sold his interest in the Bedford Inquirer to his late partner, John Lutz, Esq., by whom the paper will hereafter be conducted.

A MISTAKE.—We stated in our last week's issue that J. W. Rohm & W. W. Shuck warranted Mason's Double-acting Non-freezing force pump for three years. This was a mistake.

COL. J. C. EVERHART, of Martinsburg, paid us a visit on Tuesday last. The Colonel was on a visit to Sulphur Springs.

STAR AGRICULTURAL WORKS. THE ALBANY COTTON GIN MANUFACTURING Co., Albany, N. Y., Manufacturers of General Agricultural Machinery, comprising the celebrated "Star" Threshing Machines; "Star" Railway (or Endless Chain) and Lever Horse Powers; "Star" Cotton Gins and Condensers; Circular Cross-cut Sawmills; Vegetable Cutters; Horse Hay Forks; Corn and Feed Mills; Power Corn Shellers; Dog Powers, &c., &c.

We wish to call the particular attention of Farmers to our celebrated "STAR" THRESHER AND CLEANER, which, as lately improved, we claim it far superior to any other machine now in market. It is compact and easily portable, simple in its construction, and therefore easy to operate by the most inexperienced, and will do its work with marvellous rapidity and perfection, and with comparatively the least demand upon the strength of the animals driving it.

We have made recent improvements in this machine by which we are enabled to thoroughly clean the grain under almost any combination of difficulties, and we now using an entirely new and effective device for relieving the feeder of dust, thus making the operation of threshing as comfortable and safe as with the ordinary machines it is annoying and frequently destructive of health.

These Machines are made of suitable sizes for our "Star" Railway 2 Horse Power and for our "Star" Lever Powers for 4 and 6 horses.

For sale by our agents and dealers generally. For full particulars, send for our Illustrated Descriptive Circular and Price List. Correspondents will please address The Albany Cotton Gin Manufacturing Co., P. O. Drawer 162, Albany, N. Y.

IF A HUMBUG,

What a wonder
That the doors
Are open wide;
Ever since the
First of August
Thousands have Pain Paint applied.
Those who lie,
Or call it humbug,
Are the doctors,
Not acquaint;
For they always
Have been jealous
When their patients
Use Pain Paint.
Pile up facts
As high as mountains,
Flash the truth
Before their eyes,
But the cry
Is always humbug,
Men of science
Full of lies.

People know that liniments composed of Cayenne pepper, turpentine, hartshorn, ether, &c., will produce inflammation and pain. To purchase such trash to stop Pain and Inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop heat; a dumb brute shuns the heat, and knows enough to wade in a pond of water, when wounded, to reduce, cool, and cure Inflammation and Fever.

Pimps and gamblers try to look honest, but folks can read the face too plainly. Some try to persuade the ignorant that pills, physic, &c., cleanse the blood, purge the system, and do a hundred other things equally absurd. Everybody knows that it is false, and that no medicine can purify or increase a drop of blood. Food makes blood, bone, and muscle, and is the Staff of Life. Every dose of medicine swallowed is rejected, and hurried out of the system as quick as possible. It is an enemy; yea, a deadly foe. Constipation, ill health, and weakness, are the result of dosing, dosing, dosing the stomach.—The living system has enough to do without working herself to death in expelling and kicking out the pernicious nostrums poured down the throat. Food she welcomes when she needs it; yea, asks for it. Let pill-makers and physic venders stop eating food, and see how long they can subsist on their blood-purifying, invigorating, health-giving medicines and cordials. What humbug is more transparent? A dog would feel so insulted, if offered a dose, he would curl his tail downward in scorn, and run away in utter disgust. All physical pain arises from inflammation. Put out the fire and you stop pain absolutely. You can stop pain as easy as you can quench fire with water. WOLCOTT'S PAIN PAINT subdues inflammation, heat, and fever one hundred times faster than ice. Thousands have had a practical test of its merits at the very moment of most extreme pain and they can testify that it has not failed in doing its work. It is simple; it is harmless, it has no stain; it gives no smart; it is for sale by Druggists everywhere; and it is tested free of cost at 170 CHATHAM SQUARE, N. Y., and 622 Arch Street, Philadelphia

My wife had an ulcer on her leg for thirteen years, caused by varicose veins, ulceration extending from her ankle to her knee, some places eating away to the bone. I have employed over twenty physicians at vast expense during this period. But all attempts at cure proved utterly abortive until I tried Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint, which the doctors told me was a humbug. But humbug or not, it has done the work completely in less than one month, removing the pain at the first application. I kept her leg wet with Pain Paint constantly until healed. I wish we had more humbugs as useful as Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint. I am well known in this city. any person who wants to make further inquiry will call at 101 West Street, New York, at the Hanover House, of which I am the proprietor, and I think I can satisfy them as to the benefit derived by the use of Pain Paint.
May 12, 1868. PETER MINCK.

I am selling Wolcott's Pain Paint and Annihilator, and it certainly gives satisfaction to my customers.
D. F. COLES, Druggist, Rahway, N. J.

I am selling more of Wolcott's Pain Paint, than any other Patent Medicine.
C. N. CRITTENTON,
Wholesale Druggist, No. 7 6th Ave., N. Y.

I sell more of Wolcott's Pain Paint than all the other patent medicines combined, and I keep a full supply of all that have any demand.

PUMPS! PUMPS!! PUMPS!!!
SYLVESTER G. MASON'S
DOUBLE-ACTING, NON-FREEZING
FORCE PUMP,
Patented August 28th, 1866, and awarded the PREMIUM at the Pennsylvania, Ohio, and New York State Fairs, in 1866.

The advantages claimed for this pump over all other patent pumps are as follows, viz: The valves, are composed entirely of cast iron, rendering it the most durable of any pump yet patented. This pump is so constructed that it never freezes, the water dropping back to the level with the water in the well. It is easily worked, and can be used, by attaching hose, in washing wagons, horses, watering gardens, and in case of fire is of valuable service, as water may be thrown to the distance of from sixty to seventy feet in the air from it by the use of a small section of hose

This valuable pump is now offered to the public at the following prices:

Three-quarter in. Pump.		Inch Pump.
From 7 to 10 ft.	$15 00	From 7 to 10 ft.	$17 00
From 10 to 15 ft	17 00	From 10 to 15 ft	18 00

PROSPECTUS.
THE MORNING PATRIOT.
The office of the late Patriot and Union having passed into the hands of the undersigned, they propose to supply a vacuum that has long existed in the newspaper press of interior Pennsylvania.
From some cause or other the reading masses of the Democratic party of the great interior counties of the State, have been compelled, either to do without the latest news, or patronize journals whose political sentiments were distasteful to them
The MORNING PATRIOT is intended to supply this want.
Its proprietors are determined that no efforts shall be spared, on their part, to make it FULLY EQUAL, as a newspaper, to any of its competitors Whatever the electric wires are able to communicate, up to the hour of going to press, will be furnished in its columns every morning; and its large size will enable it to give quite as much reading matter as any of its contemporaries.
As an advocate of sound political sentiments, favoring no faction, clique or section, but devoting its entire energies to the good of the whole party; as a vehicle of the latest news, and a chronicler of passing events, we are determined that it shall not be excelled; and we confidently appeal to a discriminating public for that appreciation and encouragement which are indispensable to success.
TERMS:
For the Daily, one year in advance.....$7 00
For the Daily Six months, in advance..... 3 50
Single copies, THREE CENTS.
THE WEEKLY PATRIOT.
It is the determination of the proprietors of the PATRIOT to make their weekly journal fully equal to what the "Patriot and Union" was in its palmiest days. It will be one of the largest weekly papers in the State, and special pains will be taken to fill its columns with such reading matter as will be alike interesting and useful to the Farmer, the Mechanic and the Man of Business, and to make it an agreeable and welcome visitor to every family.
Every person should subscribe to the paper printed in his own county, and we do not mean to enter into competition with the local papers of the State. But, many people take their home paper and a city paper in addition. To such we send greeting.
TERMS:
Single copy, one year..... .....$2 50

628 HOOP SKIRTS. 628
WM. T. HOPKIN'S "OWN MAKE"
"KEYSTONE SKIRTS,"
are the best and Cheapest Low Priced Hoop Skirts in the market. Trail Skirts, 25 springs, $1.00; 30 springs, $1.20; and 40 springs, $1.45. Plain Skirts, 6 tapes, 20 springs, 86 Cents; 25 sgrings, 95 Cents, 30 springs, $1.15; and 35 springs, $1.25. Warranted in every respect.
"Our Own Make" of "UNION SKIRTS," Eleven Tape Trails, from 20 to 50 springs, $1.20 to $2.50. Plain, Six Tapes 20 to 50 springs, from 95 Cents to $2 00. These Skirts are better than those sold by other establishments as first class goods, and at much lower prices.
"Our Own Make of "CHAMPION SKIRTS" are in every way superior to all other Hoop Skirts before the public, and only have to be examined or worn to convince every one of the fact. Manufactured of the best linen-finished English Steel Springs, very superior tapes, and the style of the metalic fastenings and manner of securing them surpass for durability and excellence any other Skirt in this country, and are lighter, more elastic, will wear longer, give more satisfaction, and are really cheaper than all others. Every lady should try them. They are being sold extensively by Merchants throughout this and the adjoining States at very moderate prices. If you want the best, ask for "Hopkin's Champion Skirt." If you do not find them, get the merchant with whom you deal to order them for you, or come or send direct to us. Merchants will find our different grades of Skirts exactly what they need, and we especially invite them to call and examine our extensive assortment, or send for Wholesale Price List.
To be had at Retail at Manufactory, and of the Retail Trade generally, and at Wholesale of the Manufacturer only, to whom all orders should be addressed. MANUFACTORY and SALESROOM, 728 Arch Street, Between 6th and 7th Sts., Pa.

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impendiments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
☞Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land
Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON, Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Estey instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, Bedford, Pa. jul26,'67

COMPOUND BLOOD SEARCHER
This very valuable medicine, which is purely vegetable, has done wonders. It is a never-failing remedy for cleansing the blood. When the blood is pure, disease cannot take hold of the system. I could produce testimonials in regard to what it has effected, but I submit it to the public, guaranteeing that if used according to directions, the result will be GOOD HEALTH. It is my own manufacture.
This medicine will cure Consumption, Dispepsia, Sore Throat, and nine out of ten of all other diseases.
DIRECTIONS FOR USING.—For adults, dose, two tablespoonsfull, three times a day, before meals. Lessen the dose according to constitution.
